The ATOS Mentor Program gives a selected qualifying member of ATOS the opportunity to participate in a private coaching session with an internationally known theatre organ concert artist/educator, to be held during the ATOS Annual Convention in Cleveland.

Please note that you must be planning to attend the Annual ATOS Convention in Ohio, as no expenses will be provided.

To qualify for this opportunity, you must be a member in good standing of ATOS. Please submit an e-mail or letter to the ATOS Mentor Program, attention: Donna Parker at the address below. Included should be a few things about yourself and your present playing skills and abilities. It is preferred that you are presently taking organ instruction in some form or have done so within the past few years. Please include why you would like to be selected and what you would expect to gain from the session. Please include your age, type of instrument you normally play, and the number of years you have been playing/studying the organ. Also include your musical activities and any other information about yourself that you would like to have considered.

To be considered, please send your application letter/e-mail so that it is received no later than May 1, 2009. If you are selected, you will be notified no later than June 1, 2009. The preferred method for transmittal is e-mail. If this is not available, regular mail is acceptable. Please let us know if you have any additional questions.
